Paid Under Protest.

Property Owners Dissatisfied With Work

Of Contractors on East Market St., Job.

Action Taken at Meeting Wednesday Night.

Have Retained Attorney to Look After Their Interest.

The city will experience considerable trouble in collecting the assessments for the East Market st. pavement. Owners of property, on that thoroughfare, between Buchtel and Case ave., met last night at the store room, corner of East Market and Exchange st., and took action relative to further proceedings. A. J. Rowley was retained as attorney. It was decided to pay all assessments under protest. The city will be notified of the alleged defects in the work and material. It is the purpose of the property owners to place themselves in such a position that they can get the benefit of any reductions that may be made hereafter. They claim that instead of putting in eight inches of slag the contractors are using the old paving stones and four inches of inferior slag. It is also alleged that the pavement is not on grade.

Mr. Rowley was asked Thursday if the attention of the City Commissioners had been called to the defects.

"It has been brought to their notice by a large number of people," said he, "but the members of the Board are always in such a hurry when in

RACE RIOTS

Occur In New York.

Nearly a Hundred Negroes Were Hurt.

Dozen White Men Were Injured.

Bloody Battle Waged For Several Hours.

A Scene That Would Have Disgraced New Orleans.

New York, Aug. 16.—A mob of several hundred persons formed at 11 o'clock last night in front of the home policeman Robert J. Thorpe, Thirty-seventh street and Ninth avenue, to wreak vengeance upon the Negroes of that neighborhood because one of their race had caused the policeman's death. Thorpe was stabbed and bruised last Sunday morning by several Negroes while he was attempting to arrest a colored woman. The man who inflicted most of the injuries is said to be Arthur Harris, a negro who came here several weeks ago from Washington.

In a few moments the mob tonight swelled to 1,500 people or more, and as they became violent, the negroes fled in terror to any hiding place they could find. The police reserves from four stations, numbering 400 in all, were called out.

The mob of white men, which grew with great rapidity, raged through the district, and negroes, regardless of age or sex, were indiscriminately attacked. Scores were injured. It took the combined efforts of the reserves with many policemen on regular patrol duty in the four precincts to restore order. Clubs were used until the policemen were almost exhausted. Revolvers were emptied into the air, and in one or two instances, fired at the upper stories of the negro tenements from which the negroes defensively fired bricks, paving stones and other missiles.

The trouble grew out of the death of Policeman Robert J. Thorpe, of the West Thirty-seventh at station, as the result of a murderous assault by a negro early Sunday in Eighth ave. and Forty-first st. Thorpe was attempting to arrest a negro when Arthur Harris and another negro attacked the policeman with razors. He died the following day. The policeman's death aroused the white residents of the district included from Twenty-fifth and Forty-second sts. and from Ninth ave. to Sixth ave. Open threats against the negroes were made, and the blacks replied in kind. While not condoning the offense of Harris, they insisted that he was only one man and that the race ought not to be blamed for his action.

The policeman's body was brought to his home last night Ninth ave., between Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh sts. At once the house became a sort of shrine, and from all over the vicinity men and women called to pay their respects. Many carried handsome floral offerings. As the night grew on the feeling against the negroes seemed to grow. The fact that many saloons round about were crowded had its influence, doubtless, on the rising tide of anger. A small group gathered about the policeman's home, and Captain Cooney, of the West Thirty-seventh st. station, sent a small squad of men. Trouble was not anticipated, however, and the squad was more in the nature of a guard of honor for their dead comrade.

A few minutes before 11 o'clock an Irish woman, under the influence of drink came out of the place. She set up a howl and began to recite the virtues of the dead policeman. She said the negroes ought to be killed. Just then a young negro walked by. The white men made a rush for him and he was quickly surrounded. He was
